

Assignment 8

01/18/2017

Using the technique described in problem 7.27, compute all the prime numbers between 2 and 10000. Use either a `array` object or a `vector` object. Do not use a built-in array.

Submit your program and via Sakai online submission system and turn in a printed copy of your code in on Thursday.